A Message from Mr Imrie

Dear Parents & Carers,

I hope you have had a chance to read through the Parent Information guide I sent out earlier this week? If you do think of any questions over the weekend, please do feel free to email me and I will happily help as best as I can.

It is quite a change, both for children who have been learning at home and at school. Therefore, if you have any particular worries or would like an update at the end of next week, teachers have agreed to be available after school on Thursday (11th) and Friday (12th) March. Teachers will be offering 10 minute telephone or Virtual updates to any Parents who would like to know how their child has returned to school. This is optional but if you would like an update, please email your child's class teacher who will be able to arrange a mutually convenient time slot.

We can't wait to have all of the children back in school- We will be having an outdoor assembly on Monday to explain the safety measures to children and to excite them about the term ahead - I will see you all next week,
